ABOUT THE STUDIO

WRONG SPEAK FILMS

An independent documentary studio founded by writer and author Adam B. Coleman, telling the stories the mainstream press overlooks — reported from kitchen tables, union halls, truck stops and school board meetings rather than from a newsroom desk.

Our films are built on first-person testimony. We sit with the families, the whistleblowers and the people living inside the policy, and we let them speak without a filter. The result is documentary work that is deliberately uncomfortable, deliberately unspun, and made for an audience that has been told for years that its questions are the wrong ones to ask.

Wrong Speak Films is a sister company to Wrong Speak Publishing. Films stream in the Wrong Speak Theater at wrongspeakfilms.com, where trailers are free, full films rent for 48 hours, and Paid Supporters watch included.

FOUNDER

ADAM B. COLEMAN

Writer, author, speaker and documentarian. Founder of Wrong Speak Publishing.

Author of Black Victim to Black Victor and The Children We Left Behind. Born in Detroit and raised across America, he writes openly about fatherlessness, homelessness and masculinity. His work has appeared in the New York Post, Newsweek, The Telegraph, The Federalist, the Daily Mail, UnHerd and WORLD Magazine, with appearances on FOX News, Fox Business, NewsNation, Newsmax and Sky News Australia.

FEATURE DOCUMENTARY · DIRECTED BY ADAM B. COLEMAN

AMERICA'S MOMS

WORLD PREMIERE · DECEMBER 10, 2026

THE GOVERNMENT CAME FOR OUR KIDS. MOMS SAID NO.

In America's Moms, Adam B. Coleman follows the mothers behind Moms for Liberty — a movement of over 130,000 parents in 48 states — fighting school indoctrination, gender ideology, explicit curricula and union overreach.

Through the stories of whistleblowers, grieving mothers, injured athletes and hard-won policy victories, the film is a fierce call to reclaim parental rights and safeguard children's futures.

THE ILLEGAL HIGHWAYS

COMING EARLY 2027

THE PEOPLE. THE PROFITS. THE PRICE.

In The Illegal Highways, Adam B. Coleman exposes the hidden dangers on America's roads: illegal CDL licensing for migrants, deadly crashes, and the greed exploiting vulnerable people.

The film is built around the families left behind. Their testimony — filmed at kitchen tables rather than in studios — is set against interviews with federal officials, trucking-industry veterans and safety advocates who have watched the licensing system fail in plain sight.
